Spiffy
Choiniere Family Farm

Hi there,

I was born March 22, 2006 on the Choiniere Family Farm. As a young calf I began training with Matt, my farmer's son, to be entered into the local fair through the 4-H. Matt chose me because I am a good looking cow that is calm. Matt worked very hard to teach me how to walk on a halter, which is sort of like a leash for cows. I made sure to pay close attention and listen well.

I really like participating in the 4-H shows because of all of the attention I get, and it means a few extra treats. I especially like it when Matt and Hannah feed me right out of their hands. I'll do anything for food, but because I'm shorter than the average Holstein, all this extra food is catching up with me.
